Agreement On Contract Ends Shipping Strike

Announcement Is Made That Maritime Strike Has Been Settled

REPORT 700 SHIPS HAD BEEN TIED UP

(BULLETIN)
NEW YORK, June 19.—(INS)—The Maritime strike was settled today after the Marine engineers agreed to terms of a new contract.

Action by the CIO Marine Engineers Beneficial Association came at 2:30 a. m., and followed agreement reached between the ship operators and the National Maritime Union and the American Communications Association.

John W. Gibson, Assistant Secretary of Labor who had conducted the negotiations between the unions and the operators during the three-day work stoppage made the formal announcement that an agreement had been reached.

Under the new contract the Marine workers will be given a five percent increase in pay. At least 110,000 workers will benefit from the pay boost.

Other terms of the present contract will be extended for one year with a clause permitting re-opening of wage rates December 15.

Tied Up Shipping
The dispute between the operators and the unions has tied up shipping along the Atlantic and Gulf for three days and delayed the sailing of the giant liner America.

The NMU estimated that 700 ships were immobilized by the work stoppage which they termed a lockout.

First break in the negotiations came with announcement yesterday that an agreement had been reached between ship operators and the

Pa Newc Observes

Steve Wheale of 918 Morton street, reports he has five green tomatoes on his plants, three being on one plant.

Despite weather conditions, home grown strawberries are on the market and cherries are ripening in some parts of the county, Pa Newc is told.

Work of cutting down the weeds and tall grass along the highways of the county is already in progress.

There are a large number of excellent looking gardens in the city plots just on the edge of the seventh ward, along the road to Wampum. Pa Newc discovers in a trip along the route.

Drinking fountains that are located in several strategic spots in the city are attracting their share of patronage these days. Daily, a large supply of ice helps in keeping the water cool.

Heat was a necessary item on East Side buses early Wednesday morning Pa Newc is told. Some residents still have the fire in their furnaces banked so as to be able to start them easily in case of a drop in temperature.

Careless youths have broken a number of stain glass windows in some churches of the city, Pa Newc observes. The costly practice results in unsightly windows. Many of the pieces broken are unable to be duplicated or replaced.

Workmen are engaged in applying the blacktop in the roadway of the lower Cascade Park entrance. The completed work will make an added improvement to the Park. It is hoped that by next Monday the en-

HARRISBURG, June 19.—(INS)—The state highways department reported today that 465 persons met death on Pennsylvania highways during the first four months of 1947.

The death toll was said to have dropped 22 per cent below that of the same period in 1946 and 20 per cent below the first four months of 1941, pre-war peak accident year.

Haven today stated that in addition to those announced yesterday, four-way traffic lights are proposed at places as follows: Jefferson and Lawrence street, Highland avenue and Leasure avenue, Highland avenue and Cienmore boulevard, North and Beaver streets.

These lights, like the others proposed, have been recommended by the City Highway Traffic Study committee as a means of eliminating speeding and adding protection to pedestrians.

Steel Bleachers Will Be Delayed

School Board Notified Delivery Of New Stadium Seats Held Up By Strike

Football fans at Taggart Stadium are going to have to be satisfied with the old wooden bleachers this fall. The new steel bleachers, ordered months ago and promised for delivery by September 1, cannot be delivered until late in October at best.

This notice was received Tuesday by School Board Secretary John B. Bechtel from the Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel company, the manufacturer of the bleachers.

The notice said a four-week strike in the plant had upset the production schedule and that delivery would be impossible on the date agreed upon.

The old wooden bleachers are now in use at the P. J. Flaherty Field on loan. They will have to be replaced at Taggart Stadium late in August or early September to be ready for football. In the meantime the concrete piers for the new steel bleachers are in place and it will be necessary to place the old bleachers farther back from the playing field than they were before.

President's Veto Would End Rent Control June 30

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(INS)—Sen. Taft (R) Ohio said today that a presidential veto of the GOP rent control bill will mean the end of federal controls on June 30.

Administration sources predicted that President Truman, faced with a "take it or leave it" situation, will sign the measure reluctantly and issue a blast at Congress for its action.

Taft made it clear that in his opinion the Republican-controlled Congress would not pass further rent legislation in this session if the President rejects the House-Senate compromise scheduled to be sent to the White House today.

NEW KIND OF FISHING

PITTSBURGH, June 19.—(INS)—A new angle in fishing was used in Pittsburgh today... and with success.

Towing trucks recovered two automobiles that slid from their parking places and disappeared in the waters of the Monongahela river.

Ford, Firestone License Issued

After obtaining a marriage license at the Summit county court house, Akron, O., William Clay Ford, son of the late Edsel Ford, and Martha Parke Firestone, daughter of the rubber magnate, were all smiles for the cameramen. The two are to be married Saturday, June 21, in Akron.

Little Hope Of Russia Joining Paris Parley

By THOMAS C. WATSON
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, June 19.—The two-day Anglo-French parley in Paris on the Marshall plan to speed Europe's economic recovery was criticized by Moscow today and three other dampers into hopes that Russia will participate in the program.

Radio Moscow quoted a dispatch from the Soviet News Agency Tass which hit at the alleged exclusive nature of the two-power talks, from which British Foreign Secretary Bevin returned today.

Broadcast Significant
The broadcast was significant, coming as it does after the joint Anglo-French invitation to Russia to participate in a three-power foreign ministers' parley next week on the Marshall plan.

But it did nothing to shut the door on Soviet participation. It was recalled that the Communist newspaper Pravda recently blasted the Marshall program but Bevin and French spokesmen, in sending the invitation to Russia, felt Moscow would accept.

Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov also has expressed interest in the Anglo-French efforts. The British ambassador, Sir Maurice Peterson, quoted him as saying Russia has not made up its mind about the program, despite the Pravda attack.

High Prices To Be Probed

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(INS)—Sen. Taft (R) Ohio, GOP domestic policy leader, said today that Senate hearings would begin next week on the matter of high prices and that the investigation will continue for 30 days.

At the same time, Sen. Baldwin (R) Conn. introduced a resolution providing for a joint Congressional committee to probe inflationary price ranges.

Baldwin told the Senate that Republican campaign pledges "assured the people of the country that the control of prices would bring the relief so sorely needed." He added:

"Now it is up to us to demonstrate that we can, and will, do something to provide lower prices, particularly on the necessities the people now find it difficult to buy."

Factory Workers Facing Probe In Auto Bootlegging

(BULLETIN)
DETROIT, June 19.—(INS)—Detroit factory workers who obtain discounts and priorities on new cars were pointed out today as a source of automobile bootlegging.

Atty. General Eugene F. Black announced that some automotive employees immediately peddle their automobiles to used car lots at huge profits.

Black is ready to file a formal petition for a grand jury investigation in Detroit which will extend to the factory workers' deals.

Number Of Married Women Working Grows

By MARTHA KEARNEY
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 19.—One out of every five girls who quits her job to be married probably will find herself playing a return engagement at the typewriter when the honeymoon is over.

The women's bureau of the labor department revealed today that the number of married women either working or looking for work outside the home has increased by about two million since 1940.

The increase is attributed partly to "the long time trends that have raised the proportions of married women at work."

Millions Working
The bureau estimates that both

Congressional Leaders Attack Administration Policy In Shipments To Soviet

CRITICAL NEED IS FACED IN U. S.

By JAMES LEE
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Congressional leaders today denounced the huge shipments of oil and gasoline from United States ports to Russia while the American armed forces face a critical shortage of fuel.

Sen. Gurney (R) S. D., chairman of the senate armed services committee, bitterly assailed the administration "powers-that-be" for permitting a situation in which Russian tankers lift heavy consignments as the United States navy is forced to curtail flying operations.

Gurney declared that export controls should be restored. He said: "The powers-that-be who are responsible for this travesty should realize what is taking place and restore controls."

Should Meet Own Needs
"It is obvious to any citizen with an ounce of patriotism that the needs of our navy should be met before gasoline and oil are sent to Russia."

"I believe that oil should be exported only when we have a definite surplus, and with the entire nation (Continued on Page Two)

New Record For Parking Meters

During the month of May $3,821 was deposited as fees for parking in the meters, the highest amount yet paid by parkers since the installation of meters.

According to Arthur Harris, collector, he believes parking receipts this year will amount to $40,000.

Wampum Druggist In Same Location 50 Years

Fifty years ago June 21, 1897, a struggling young business man, opened up a drug store on Railroad street in Wampum.

That same gentleman, Dave McDonald, though perhaps not so spry as he was then, is still in business and dispensing drugs in the very same room that he began business in Lawrence county.

"My sister wanted me to do a little celebrating" stated Mr. McDonald, "but this is just another day for me. There are customers to be served and business must be carried on as usual."

The congenial druggist began business when he was 22 years of age in Sharon and after working there for about three years, he went to Pittsburgh, where he studied at Western Reserve, now Pitt University.

He hasn't any plans for retirement and expects to keep going for a long time yet.

Wilson Will Head Turkish Mission

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(INS)—President Truman today designated Edwin C. Wilson, U. S. ambassador to Turkey, to be chief of the American Mission for Aid to Turkey.

As administrator of the aid to Turkey program, Wilson will retain his post as ambassador.

At the same time, the president nominated another ex-general to be an assistant secretary of state.

He is Charles Salzman, vice president of the New York Stock Exchange, a West Pointer and former brigadier general.

Report Gen. Eisenhower Offered Presidency Of Columbia University

(BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON, June 19.—(INS)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, army chief of staff, has been offered the presidency of Columbia university and is considering acceptance of the post.

This was disclosed today in an official war department announcement which emphasized that at the conclusion of his army duties Eisenhower "would like to utilize his energies in something connected with public service of non-political nature."

The announcement added, however, that Eisenhower will not consider the Columbia post of any other civilian post until his present duties.

Walter Winchell declared today in a copyrighted story in the New York Mirror that Eisenhower has tendered his resignation to President of Columbia next fall.

War Department Statement
The war department statement was issued by Maj. Gen. F. L. Parks, chief of the information division, who said:

"In answer to many inquiries from the press General Eisenhower has directed me to say that he has no intention of leaving his present assignment as chief of staff during the current year and never without (Continued on Page Two)

Workers Battle Spread Of Flood

Thousands Of Acres Of Farm Land In Missouri Are Endangered

HANNIBAL, Mo., June 19.—(INS)—Thousands of acres of rich farm land were endangered by flood waters in the Hannibal area today as workers toiled ceaselessly to repair levees weakened by last week's inundation.

A flood crest of 24.5 feet, a half a foot higher than that of last week, was expected to reach the Hannibal area by tomorrow, and army engineers warned residents of the lowlands to flee to higher ground.

The levee was reported weakening in Pike county, Illinois, across the Mississippi river from Hannibal.

More rain in Missouri and Illinois swelled the flood waters and threatened the dikes in the vicinity of Quincy, Ill.

Flood water poured through a new break in the levee at Oakville, a town of 400 persons, was virtually isolated today. Most of the residents had fled the town when the break occurred.

The flood was rising again at Hamburg, Ia., where a 44-block area still was under water from last week's inundation.

Commission In Palestine Views Hulks Of Vessels

JERUSALEM, June 19.—(INS)—The rotting hulks of more than 30 vessels captured by the British navy while attempting to pierce the anti-immigration blockade were viewed today by the United Nations Palestine commission in Haifa harbor.

The grim monument to the frustration of Jewish hopes for settlement in Palestine was compensated somewhat by the practical example of Arab, Jewish and Christian harmony in the port city.

The commission, its aides and newsmen on their fourth working day of the fact-finding mission traveled the 120 miles to the northwest of Jerusalem in 19 cars.

They toured Haifa where 79,000 Jews, 40,000 Arabs and 26,000 Christians live in peace and share in the municipal government.

They were greeted by the municipal council and Mayor Shabbatai Levy, a Jew, serving his ninth year in office.

Arthur Mometer

I know the weather has been wet and farms are soggy and soaked and we've criticized the weather man but there was nothing to be done, what was there we could do, but this I know in long, damp rains, the corn is coming through. Not high ye ken, but there it is, each day shoots more and more, so things are going to be okay—the weather's seventy-four.

Bi-Partisan Body Will Be Appointed On Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(INS)—President Truman is to name soon a bi-partisan committee to advise the administration on United States foreign policy, particularly during the period congress is in recess.

Administration officials are studying the proposal, projected over the week-end by Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg (R) Mich. The reaction generally is regarded as favorable.

It also was understood that the administration is regarded as ready to go along with the proposal of former president Hoover, supported by Vandenberg, that an inventory of the nation's resources be made before an aid program is adopted.

NO DEPRESSION NEAR
PITTSBURGH, June 19.—(INS)—Armin Friedman, Chicago economist, today said there would be no depression in the United States "for at least ten years."

Speaking at a convocation of the Retail Jewish Association of Western Pennsylvania, Friedman said the vast savings of the people will allow full production of consumer goods for many years.

WORKER FATALITY INJURED

PITTSBURGH, June 19.—(INS)—The Allegheny county coroner's office reported that Elmore Lee, 42, was killed when a steel casting fractured his skull while at work at the Continental Foundry & Machine Co. plant at Coraopolis.

PITTSBURGH, June 19.—(INS) A divinity student was killed when three others critically injured when their car crashed into a parked truck near Midway today.

State police said the large truck was parked off the highway, adding that Clewell was to be married Saturday to the daughter of a Reading minister.

Suggestion Received

"One suggestion he has received was from certain members of the board of trustees of Columbia that he consider the presidency thereof, but he is not in a position to discuss the matter at this time.

"If and when General Eisenhower makes a commitment as to his future plans, an announcement will be made to the press. In any event, he will not consider any engagement effective until after his superiors have released him from his present duties."

Columbia Silent

In New York, Columbia university officials declined to confirm or deny the report that arrangements had been completed for Eisenhower to assume the presidency.

Frederick Coykendall, chairman of the university's board of trustees, stated: "No president of Columbia university has been selected."

Eisenhower, supreme allied commander in Europe during World War II, and a leading architect of victory, frequently has been mentioned as a possible candidate for president of the United States.

But the general has firmly and consistently denied political ambitions and has, in fact, refused to admit even a party preference.

Eisenhower will be 57 next Oct. 14. He will be eligible for retirement upon completion of his duty as chief of staff.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—(INS)—Speedy settlement of the remaining labor disputes involving the West Coast shipping industry was predicted in San Francisco today following the agreement reached in New York terminating the East and Gulf Coast tieups.

Observers said the Pacific Coast locals of the CIO Marine Cooks and Stewards and the American Communications Association probably would accept the same type of settlement as that negotiated in New York.

PRESIDENT IS READY TO ACT ON LABOR BILL

fied the president will veto the bill.

Congress knew definitely well in advance that the president would veto the tax reduction measure, but the chief executive's intentions on the labor bill were closely guarded.

Among labor experts there was a strong feeling that Mr. Truman will disapprove the Taft-Hartley bill. It was pointed out that the measure goes far beyond the president's own legislative proposals on labor and contains several features of the Case bill which the president vetoed a year ago.

Will Override Veto

Republican leaders declared that if Mr. Truman does reject the measure, the Senate will override the veto. Such action is considered certain by the house.

The president was reported unmoved by organized labor's relentless assault on the legislation and its widely-advertised charges that the bill would "enslave" the American working man.

Instead, the chief executive was pictured as more impressed with the arguments of some of his key advisers that the legislation is administratively "unworkable," contains many so-called "bugs" and would prove ineffective in the threatened summer coal strike.

One government official said all members of Mr. Truman's cabinet thought some labor legislation was necessary, but that a majority of them were dubious about the merits of the pending bill.

Labor Battles Measure

Secretary of Labor Lewis B. Schwellenbach and Paul Herzog, chairman of the National Labor Relations Board, have led the inter-administration fight against the Taft-Hartley measure.

The campaign of organized labor and liberal groups against the bill has continued until the final deadline.

A group of some 40 university economists and professors of industrial relations wired Mr. Truman that "the Taft-Hartley bill must not become law." The group included former War Labor Board chairman Lloyd K. Garrison and several ex-WLB members.

Meantime, the National Planning Association launched a study of the "causes of industrial peace" through a survey of some 15 companies and unions which have had a long record of "successful and peaceful industrial relations."

cause they must support or contribute to the support of their families.

There were almost 38 million families in the United States in 1946, of which almost 29 million were considered "normal".

The next largest group was that including more than six and one-half million families which were headed by women.

The bureau said that in the second group about one-third of the mothers of children under six years of age were employed while 50 per cent of the mothers with children over six but under 18 worked.

facing a drastic petroleum shortage, that certainly is not now the case".

Gurney said he had not decided whether his committee would investigate the shipments to Russia but that he would "take the matter under consideration".

Sen. Johnson (D) Colo., ranking minority member of the senate interstate and foreign commerce committee, asserted:

"This is more of the same sort of thing that has marked our relations with Russia while Communist aggression continues to spread.

"We have heard a lot of double talk about the situation, but this is worse than that—it is double action."

Equivalent To Before War

Rep. Poulson (R) Calif., declared that the situation is "exactly equivalent" to the shipments of scrap steel and petroleum products to Japan before Pearl Harbor.

Poulson said that the commerce department should be re-established petroleum export controls immediately to stop the flood of oil to Russia.

He said that this could be done by executive action "within a matter of hours".

But a commerce department spokesman said that there was no present intention of taking this step.

He admitted, however, that the department is gathering "complete details" of Russian petroleum shipments from Los Angeles harbor, where Soviet tankers obtained under lend-lease are expected to complete seasonal loadings of more than a million barrels.

Urges Support Of Proposal For Dividing Tax

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(INS)—Congressional support of the proposed "community property" arrangement to effect income tax reductions for married persons was urged today by Chambers of Commerce in seven states including Pennsylvania.

Murray M. Flack of Pittsburgh, spokesman for the chambers, warned the House Ways and Means Committee that other states would follow Pennsylvania in permitting couples to split incomes for determining individual taxes unless federal action was taken.

Pennsylvania's General Assembly, prior to adjournment Tuesday, sent to Gov. James H. Duff a bill which would slash Pennsylvania's income taxes by $100,000,000 a year.

"The personal income tax, which has been the bulwark of the American revenue structure, should be imposed fairly and moderately upon the millions of our citizens who must contribute to the support of essential public services," Flack asserted.

Columbia is the only South American country which has both Atlantic and Pacific coasts.

LUNCHEON GIVEN AT COUNTRY CLUB

Members of McVane Guild of the First Presbyterian church were delightfully entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon Wednesday afternoon in the New Castle Country club given jointly by Mrs. Paul H. Wilson and Mrs. Samuel W. Perry, Jr.

Mrs. J. J. McVane, sponsor of the guild, was the guest of honor and the occasion was in the nature of a farewell before she leaves to take up residence in New York City. On behalf of the guild, which was organized 11 years ago in Mrs. McVane's home, Mrs. Wilson, newly elected president, presented a lovely gift to the guest of honor. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Robert Bates and Mrs. Henry R. Neill, of Pittsburgh; and Mrs. John H. Arrington, of Alexandria, Va., all former members of McVane guild. Miss Gene McVane was a special guest.

GROVE CITY EVENT OF INTEREST HERE

In a beautiful ceremony in the Grace Methodist church, Grove City, on Tuesday, June 17, Miss Winsome McCurdy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harold A. McCurdy of that place, became the bride of Bruce Manning Klay of Tampa, Florida. The bride's father, formerly pastor of the Epworth Methodist church of New Castle, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride was lovely in a period gown of white satin-striped tulle with basque bodice and very full skirt, the dress worn by her sister, Mrs. Floyd A. Ferguson, Jr., at her wedding. The veil was held by a haig of stephanotis and she carried a bouquet of white gladiolus. She was given in marriage by her uncle, the Rev. Norman I. Bromley of Huntingdon, West, Va. Attending her sister as maid of honor, Miss Eva McCurdy of Erie, was attired in moss green faille styled similarly to the bride's gown. Bridesmaids, Mrs. Floyd A. Ferguson, Jr., of Mansfield, Ohio, and Miss Jean Klay, the groom's sister of Tampa, Fla., wore identical gowns of chartreuse faille. The attendants all wore matching half-hits trimmed in white carnations and carried old fashioned circular bouquets of white carnations and stephanotis.

James Edward Connell of Tampa attended Mr. Klay as best man and the ushers were Kenneth Shick of Brookville, Frank Ferraraccio of DuBois, Dewitt Palmer of Mercer and James Gibson of Grove City. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. E. S. Hassler, violinist, accompanied by Walter Dunkerly at the organ, played "I Love You Truly," "Traumerel," and "Through the Years." At the conclusion of the ceremony, Miss Wilma Thornton of Pittsburgh, a classmate of the bride, sang "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. The couple left for the honeymoon to the Gulf of Mexico. They will make their home in Tampa where the groom is associated with his father in the printing business. Mrs. Klay was graduated from the Brookville high school, the Presbyterian Hospital School of Nursing in Pittsburgh, and attended Allegheny College. Mr. Klay graduated from Hillsboro High School, attended the University of Tampa and was in the Navy for two years.

DOLORES MARIANA WEDS GEORGE NOGEE

One of the loveliest of summer weddings was solemnized in St. Vitus church Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, uniting in marriage Miss Dolores Mariana, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Mariana, 621 East Long avenue, and George Edward Noguee, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Noguee, Frank avenue.

Before a large gathering of friends and relatives, the young couple exchanged vows, with Rev. Nicholas DeMita officiating and using the double ring ceremony. Orange blossoms and peonies embanked the altar and Mrs. Frances Coloa provided a period of nuptial organ music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a white marquisette gown with sheer round yoke, long sleeves edged with ruffle, made en train. Her long veil fell from a crown of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white roses, with cascading streamers of stephanotis. As her jewelry she wore a cross.

Miss Edith Mariana, as her sister's maid of honor, wore a pink faille gown with drape skirt and buttoned bodice. She wore a pink bonnet and mitts and carried a bouquet of pink roses and blue sweetpeas.

Misses Wanda Puzlo and Bernice Szymkowicz, the latter of Wichita, Kan., were bridesmaids, attired in blue marquisette gowns with tucked skirt and matching mitts. They wore yellow flowers in their hair, and carried yellow roses with blue streamers.

Frank Noguee was his cousin's best man. Ushers were William Noguee and Andrew Lenhart. Supplementing the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served to members of the bridal party and immediate families at a dining room, Wilmington avenue.

Guests numbering 250 attended the informal reception at the bride's home, East Long avenue, from 2 until 7 p. m. Lunch was served buffet style. Large white peonies decorated the bridal table. Pointing were Mrs. Jeannette Gurnea, Mrs. Rosamond Blews, Mrs. Thomas Booher, Mrs. Humbert Fazzone and Mrs. Frank Marcella. Fresh flowers also were used in decorating the house, and the many gifts received by the young couple were on display.

Mr. and Mrs. Noguee departed for Georgia at 9 o'clock, and following their southern wedding trip will make their residence at 621 East Long avenue after June 23.

ANTI-INSTALLMENT PLAN

Few Americans would question the statement that there should be no more government curbs on the peace-time economy than are absolutely necessary. But President Truman, in a letter to Federal Reserve Board Chairman Eccles, says continued curbs on retail installment buying are necessary.

Unregulated installment buying, it is held by the control school to whose thesis President Truman apparently subscribes, can increase the fluctuations of the business cycle by causing higher prices in periods when prices are already too high.

War-time regulations, which the President wants continued as a permanent peacetime policy, in most cases require a retail down payment of one-third, the balance to be paid within 15 months. Even with these restrictions in force, the volume of installment buying has now reached more than $10,000,000,000, a figure which some "economists" find alarming. If restrictions were removed, the total might soar to $20,000,000,000 or more, they fear.

In other words, the control school of thought wants restrictions continued on installment buying because if they were removed business might become too good. But the same individuals have been warning for months that a depression is just around the corner. They ought to make up their minds which it is to be.

FLY AROUND THE WORLD

Anyone with the wherewithal will be able to fly around the world this summer. The first regularly scheduled trip by air started from New York Tuesday, when a party of newspaper publishers boarded a Pan-American plane for London and beyond. From now on there will be east-bound flights from New York and west-bound flights from San Francisco each week.

The most casual observer of what has been happening in aviation could have predicted that this was coming. It was, in fact, inevitable. But now that it is actually here it is hard to believe. It is almost incredible that anyone can buy a ticket to circle the globe by plane.

But it is no dream. For that sum it is possible to step aboard one of Pan-America's new type of four-engine Constellations and fly to London, Karachi, Calcutta, Bangkok, Manila, Guam, Wake Island, Honolulu and New York. For those in a hurry, the 21,426 miles of travel will take roughly seven days. Those who want to take more time can stop over at any point as long as they like.

Those who happen to have a yearning for far places can use their summer vacation this year for an air voyage around the world, spend a few days sight-seeing here and there, and be back for a week-end nearer home. A year from now this will be commonplace. Ten years from now thousands of people may be doing it.

THAT U. N. VETO

A great many well-meaning people are now stating that the only way the United Nations may become effective is to abolish the right of any of the great powers to veto its decisions. They say that so long as Russia or any other nation can by veto stop action by the U. N. because it does not like the tenor of its decisions, the United Nations will be ineffective so far as preserving the peace is concerned. They add that putting the right of veto into the charter was a mistake.

Whether the veto, however, weakens the charter of the United Nations to any extent is a question. The veto right was inserted in the first place to assure the adherence of Soviet Russia to the United Nations. Had it not been provided it is seriously to be doubted whether or not Russia would have joined the international organization.

Persons who say abolishing the veto would bring about unity and efficiency in the U. N. reason similarly to those who believe that to remedy a situation all you have to do is to pass a law about it. We remember what happened to the prohibition amendment. Prohibition itself was a failure because too many people disliked it and it could not be enforced.

The same thing may be true of law within the United Nations if and when the veto is abolished. True it is that the will of the U. N. cannot always be enforced so long as the veto is present. But how could it be enforced if the veto provision were not in the charter? If Russia, for example, disapproved a decision to the point where it would veto that decision if the veto is abolished?

We have no international police force to carry out decisions of the U. N., nor will we have one in the near future unless Moscow changes its mind. And if there were an international police force, just how effective would it be in preventing war if one of the major powers decided to block a decision and had no veto power to do it?

It may be, therefore, that rather than being a deterrent to league unity the veto actually serves as a safety valve for the organization. This is not an argument in favor of the veto. It is merely an attempt to show that nothing except unity of purpose among the great powers will save the United Nations.

Washington Calling

By Marquis Childs

Little Real Backing Seen For Wallace

WASHINGTON, June 19.—If Henry Wallace built up into a political hero, he will owe a considerable debt to the stupidity of those who profess to oppose everything Wallace stands for. They seem determined to advertise him as a martyr in the cause of peace.

The house Un-American activities committee rarely fails to chip in its free publicity build-up. In connection with Wallace's appearance in Washington, the committee went so far as to suggest a Gestapo-like surveillance of the audience, apparently in the expectation of frightening away timid government employees. Americans will always react against such tactics.

Unless the opposition insists on handing it to him on a silver platter, Wallace is not likely to develop any very substantial political following. In his barnstorming tour of Europe and the United States, he has drawn large audiences but he has not attracted any conspicuous political recruits.

Largely Negative

The effect of his tour of Great Britain, insofar as it was meant to strengthen left-wing opposition within the labor party, seems to have been largely negative. Jennie Lee, labor member of parliament and wife of Aneurin Bevan, minister in the Attlee Cabinet, criticized Wallace in an editorial in the left-wing London Tribune, of which she is co-editor. The editorial noted that leading New Dealers and labor leaders in this country are not among Wallace's followers.

"Though mixed in character," she wrote, "the most influential is Lee Pressman who did all in his power, before Pearl Harbor, to organize CIO opposition to Roosevelt's lend-lease to Britain. It was only when Russia was brought into the war that his views changed, and up to the moment he signed the message (which Wallace took to England), I can find no evidence of any spirit of friendship towards post-war Britain in Mr. Pressman's activities. On the other hand, few of our leading trade-unionists who took an active anti-Fascist stand from the very beginning of the war, and have recently striven to picture the virtues as well as the short-comings of labor Britain, give any sign they accept Mr. Wallace as their leader."

Little Backing

In his Washington speech, Wallace's only reference to Britain was as one of the powers that had attempted after World War I to put down Communism by arming Russia's neighbors. In his speeches in England, Wallace talked about American imperialism and the prime

INVITATION TO SON'S AND DAUGHTER'S GRADUATION

Question: My daughter and son will be graduated from high school in June. Must I send separate invitations or will one invitation and two cards to each guest suffice?

Answer: If both your son and daughter will be graduated from the same school, you might send to each guest just one invitation with the personal card of each graduate enclosed.

Question: When I remain overnight at a friend's house and at his suggestion park my car in his (public) garage, should I pay for my storage, or is it the host's duty to take care of this?

Answer: You should pay since the garage will charge him for this extra service. If the garage managers tell you it has been put on your friend's bill, offer to pay your own share. If your host refuses to accept your money, then let him assume the charge but you will feel more comfortable having made the offer.

Question: When should wedding announcements be sent?

Answer: They should be addressed and stamped ready to be sent on the day of the wedding after the ceremony.

Question: My best friend and I live in a small family hotel. She is planning to be married in her home town—miles from here. Do you think it would be proper for me to give her and her fiancé a tea in our hotel before she leaves for her wedding?

Answer: Indeed, yes, it is perfectly proper for you to give her a tea. And no doubt she and her fiancé will be delighted at your thoughtfulness.

Question: Should the husband register for both himself and his wife at a hotel? If a man, his wife and another woman go to a hotel, should he register for all?

Answer: He should register for both his wife and himself but he should allow the other woman to register for herself.

Present your problems to Miss Martel who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers enclosing stamped, self-addressed envelopes. Tomorrow—Party Calls.

"Buyer Resistance"

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

GOOD ADVICE ON HELPING TIMID CHILD

All we parents want our children to be attractive. Here is something I once wrote for children. You might choose to read it to your young child or offer it to the older child to read.

The tiny baby only a few weeks old does not center his eyes on your eyes. He just seems to be looking off into space. And he does not smile. Even though he seems to pay no attention to us, we love him dearly. He is so tiny and so cunning. But if a big person or another boy or girl of your age did not look at you when you talked to him you would not like him much. Also you would suppose that he did not like you.

A Tiny Baby

If you have a very, very tiny baby brother or sister, you have been trying to get a smile from him. You have made soft sounds as you moved your head and as your eyes danced and sparkled. Your mother has been looking for this first smile too; and she may see the first one. How happy it makes you feel when this tiny little brother or sister begins to smile at you. You know then that he is really looking into your eyes. He knows you are somebody. He likes you. He makes you feel important.

For many more weeks, about all that matters to this little baby is your eyes. To him you really are your eyes. Since your eyes are bright and move rapidly, he easily sees them and may always look into your eyes as you come near to him. Feeling happy as he looks into your eyes, he smiles. Soon he connects, in his head, your smile and your voice with your eyes. Gradually you become more than your eyes to him. Yet, always to him, your eyes may be the most important part of you. Indeed, your eyes will be the most important part of you to anybody else.

Now you can see that if we want other people to like us we must let them see our eyes when they talk to us or when we talk to them. We need to listen with our eyes and talk with our eyes.

It is not always easy to look squarely at a person when we feel a bit timid, especially if this person is a stranger. You have seen some little children who are so timid they hang their heads and look down at the floor or ground, or any other place but at the person who tries to talk to them. They also may

From Me To You

By MESEKALL

For years and years we have been hearing mighty fine things about the section of town called Croton . . . formerly in ye olden days it was called Croton . . . the mighty fine people that used to live up in Croton and the ones that are now living in that section . . . Not only does Croton hold the honor of turning out very interesting School Bands but the residents of that sector can feel proud of themselves for having maintained the Service Honor Roll Board in as good condition two years after the war as it was maintained during the war.

Today however we have something more to say about the residents of the Croton Section . . . something that gives me a great deal of pleasure in saying for it shows that people are wonderful and so nice to do business with. And these words of praise can apply to residents from the age of one year . . . when children start to walk . . . to the eldest resident of that section.

Several months ago the Employees of the Johnson-Bronze Company started to build a baseball diamond in the Croton section . . . Much equipment was needed to do the job . . . after the grading it was necessary to seed the plot for a beautiful and useful diamond . . . erect fences . . . seats for the spectators. Buildings for rest rooms and dressing rooms . . . oh so many things both large and small . . . now it's almost completed and during a conversation with an official of the Baseball Field we heard praise for the residents of Croton . . . Not one nail was even touched or missing on the new diamond, that means that boys and girls, young men and women and all residents of the Croton section respected the rights and property of others.

To this scribe it means just this . . . the men and women who are parents in the Croton section of New Castle are real honest-to-goodness people . . . they know how to teach their children, they know that proper supervision is necessary to teach children the proper things so that they might be good citizens . . . The people who worked on the J-B Flakety Field thank you . . . and it is a pleasure for us to pass along that thought.

State Police Say:—

The regular semi-annual inspection period in which you must have your car inspected began on May 1st. While you have until July 31st to submit your car for inspection, it is a good idea to have your car inspected as soon as possible as past experience has proved that many motorists who wait until the last few days experience difficulty in having the necessary repairs made.

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

In my newspaper this morning there were more stories about labor troubles and impending strikes.

There was also an editorial which spoke about the ever-increasing strife between capital and labor and which painted a gloomy picture.

But, on the inside page of that same paper there was a report of the 100th anniversary celebration of the Borden Mining company in Frostburg, Md.

William Borden, the president, gave all his employees a huge barbeque, a variety of salads and an inexhaustible supply of pastries. "As the party drew to a close," the story ended, "groups were drifting down the mountains to their homes, and a white-haired grandmother who had tenanted on Borden property all her life was still shaking her head."

"The barbeque itself was a feast of unlimited portions," said the story. "Besides beef there was pork, ham, cold cuts, shrimp, crab meat, a variety of salads and an inexhaustible supply of pastries. "As the party drew to a close," the story ended, "groups were drifting down the mountains to their homes, and a white-haired grandmother who had tenanted on Borden property all her life was still shaking her head."

"I've never seen such food," she said, "and I'm seventy-six years old. These Borden people sure are human beings."

There you have the whole thing in a nutshell.

"These Borden people sure are human beings."

I always get mad when I see that "capital and labor" business. What is capital? What is labor? Human beings. I'd like to make you any bet you want that when a so-called capitalist eats too much cucumber salad his stomach kicks up just as badly as the ditch-digger's.

Do you think for a moment that a millionaire's tooth ache hurts any less than a charwoman's?

Unfortunately, business in this country has become so big and so involved that "capitalists" and "laborers" can't very well sit together and talk about their kids and their rheumatism and their human problems.

Instead, they talk and worry about dollars and production and a lot of things that don't matter a damn when death strikes or when the heart aches.

I understand that in that Borden mine in Frostburg, Md. they don't know strikes or labor troubles.

They work together as human beings, they play together and know each other and nobody is any better.

COUNSEL TO YOUNG MOTORISTS

I remember years ago that a wise man said to me: "Always drive your car as though All you meet will carelessly be. Just remember night and day. You'll encounter many fools. Let them have the right of way. You owe ythe traffic rules."

I remember that he said: "When another wants to pass. Keep your temper and your head. Don't you step upon the gas! Don't attempt, through silly pride, Reckless drivers to delay. Wave them on and turn aside; That is much the safer way."

I remember that he told: "When you're sitting at the wheel. There are people, young and old. With afflictions they conceal. Some there are who cannot hear; Cannot run or plainly see. Don't assume the road is clear. Drive as though it may not be." (Copyright, 1947, Edgar A. Guest)

PARIS — Ernest Bevin, British foreign secretary arrives for economic conference: "We can wait no longer to do something about enabling millions of people in Europe to attain a decent standard of living."

Staggering Task Is Confronted

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The scale of the effort toward world recovery upon which this nation seems about to embark is so vast as to be staggering. There is no question about that. It is by far the greatest task any country ever contemplated. It makes what we already have done in the two years since the war (approximately six billions in relief and seven billions in loans and credits) appear not much more than a start.

IT dwarfs every other issue, causes the normal problems of government to seem puny, indeed. Six months ago the mere idea that we seriously could consider expenditures that in the course of a few years possibly may total 30 billions in order to put the European economy on its feet would have seemed silly now.

PERHAPS it will take time to enlighten and reconcile the people as a whole to so tremendous a program, make clear the unthinkable alternatives and convince them of the vital nature of our own stake. But, regardless of parties and politics, the best-informed men in the land, whose judgment is most to be relied upon and whose motives are above question, recognize the terrible necessity back of Secretary Marshall's plan proposed in his Harvard speech and are openly advocating steps to make it practical.

THE most impressive evidence of this is the letter of Mr. Herbert Hoover written at the request of Senator Bridges, in which Mr. Hoover presents the particularly basic fact that the first thing to consider is how far this country can go along that road without wrecking its own economy. It would, he says, be the ultimate calamity, if in extending aid to the rest of the world we broke our own economic back. That would mean a collapse leaving civilization in far worse shape than if no effort to save it had been made.

HENCE, Mr. Hoover urges that the whole gigantic business be considered in that light—that we coordinate all of our agencies that would contribute in any way, list our assets and resources, regulate our exports and imports, compel the self-help as well as co-operation of the assisted nations, it being clear that strong as we are by no means strong enough to do the job alone. In brief, Mr. Hoover, supporting the Marshall plan and wanting the job done, wants first to find out what we have to do with it, what it will cost, what other nations will help, how much and with what; how big a bill we can meet and still stand straight and steady—under the load. In brief, he wants to get down to brass tacks.

THIS, of course, makes sense. This, of course, is the only way the job can be done without universal disaster. It is exactly in line with what Mr. B. M. Baruch has urged on President Truman and various committees. It fits well into the speech of Senator Vandenberg urging appointment of a commission at "the highest level" to work out practical policies and plans. It is in accord with the expressed thought of Senator Harry Byrd and others who recognize the soundness of the Hoover point that the thing of first importance is how much we can stand without ourselves going under. The necessity of being practical about this plan is certainly as clear as the necessity of adopting it. Unless we put it on a firm foundation and keep our own feet, inevitably we will sink along with everybody else.

THERE seems slight room to argue about that. Under these circumstances, the first indicated action would seem to be the speedy (because time is overwhelmingly important) selection of a commission as suggested by Mr. Vandenberg. And, at the top of the commission should be the names of Herbert Hoover and Bernard M. Baruch. Mr. Hoover has voiced Mr. Baruch's convictions. Mr. Baruch indorses Mr. Hoover's views. One is a Republican, the other a Democrat. Unquestionably they are the two foremost private citizens in the world. Neither one has a personal or political axe to grind. Both are deeply experienced. They can work together, and together they would carry greater weight in the country and in Congress than any other two men. Disparagement of either comes only from the prejudiced and petty. The President may have to search to fill out his commission with men from the "highest levels," but he should be in no doubt about the two at the top. (Distributed by McNaught Syndicate)

In View Of The News

By J. C. Oestreicher, INS Foreign Director

A hitherto little-known sidelight on the manner in which Adolf Hitler ran and ruined Germany was exposed to view today with official disclosure by Gen. Lucius D. Clay that Heinrich Himmler and Martin Bormann functioned as bankers of the Nazi Reich.

The report from America's occupational commander on the fantastic thimble-rigging of German finances during the days of Nazism may explain the mysterious acquittal at Nuremberg of former Reichsbank President Dr. Hjalmar Schacht.

For Gen. Clay discloses that the financial destinies of his war-consecrated regime were placed almost without reservation in the hands of two men whose qualifications as financiers were negligible to say the least.

Himmler, who later became chief of the dread Gestapo, was a high school instructor in seed culture whose top salary had been about three thousand dollars a year.

Lived Off German Bounty Bormann never knew what a steady income was, and in point of fact lived off the German government's bounty as a prisoner in a jail cell during a considerable part of his adult life.

According to the evidence now uncovered, these two weird individuals were given control of the Deutsche bank and the Dresdener bank, which in the pre-Hitler days were the largest private financial institutions in Germany.

The extent of their ability to handle vast financial operations needed to gear an entire nation of 80 million persons to the creation of an aggressive war against the world was evident in their home lives.

When Hitler made him chief inquisitor as head of the Gestapo, Himmler built himself a co-called "Villa" at Berchtesgaden. It was a masterpiece of mediocrity.

Created Little Berchtesgaden to inspect the monuments left behind by the Nazi high and mighty were astonished to see how little Himmler had created.

His house is an eight-room two-storyed stucco affair, sagging at the eaves and crumbling on its foundations. The local architect tells of using second-rate material and of cutting all the corners. One result was that at the time of his suicide Himmler had paid for only half the panelling of his living room.

In Bormann's case, it was the other way around. He built a virtual palace, plus swimming pool, and in walking with Hitler up the mountain road one day noticed that the Fuehrer's eye was afflicted by a Bavarian farmhouse that disturbed to some slight degree the symmetry of the landscape.

The very next morning, the farmer and his family were evicted and by nightfall the house had been razed to the ground and rich green sod planted on the spot where it stood.

Hitler was highly pleased. That was Bormann's way of pleasing his master and clinching his grip on Germany's gold.

Cornish tin mines have enough ore reserves to permit continued operation for 50 to 100 years, it is estimated.

CALLING

importance of Britain's role as peacekeeper with the Soviet Union. In the course of his tour of this country, in only two instances did Wallace have any real political backing. In Minnesota, his appearance was sponsored by the Democratic-farmer labor party. But the most dynamic figure in the D-FL and their only conspicuous vote-getter today, Mayor Hubert H. Humphrey of Minneapolis, had nothing to do with Wallace's appearance.

In Southern California, Wallace had the substantial backing of the left-wing of the Democratic party. His chief sponsor in California is former State Attorney General Robert W. Kenny, who was badly defeated for the governorship when Earl Warren last year won nomination in both the Republican and Democratic primaries. The split in the Democratic party in California is so bitter that the Republicans seem almost certain to carry the state next year.

Evidence accumulates that in the State of Washington Wallace's appearance in behalf of a Democrat who straddled the foreign issue helped to elect a Republican who favored the Truman doctrine. That was in the special congressional election in the Third District, where in the primaries the Democrats got twice as many votes as the Republicans.

When he criticizes the negative aspects of the Truman doctrine, Wallace is on sound ground. Yet, in his Washington speech, he said nothing at all about Secretary of State Marshall's constructive program for Europe. When he talks of the deep desire of peoples everywhere for peace, he reflects a worldwide longing. In his easy "solutions," he conveniently ignores all the grim facts of the past two years.

The effort to suppress or intimidate Wallace will only add to his following. We as a people will always resent being treated like children who are not old enough to distinguish between true criticism and false.

THE WORLD AND

mon on the Mount is nearly twenty centuries old, but nothing has happened in two thousand years to alter the fundamentals of this ideal of human conduct.

There are those who fail to take into consideration—indicative of a too-common trend in these days of zealous "social uplifters"—that neither time nor changing conditions can repeal the basic principles upon which the government of the United States has so successfully functioned for all these years. These bases are so simple that they confound the superficially wise and tempt them to undertake "improvements" in the name of modernity. Strangely, most of these would-be improvers insist that that our charter of liberty would be much better if it substituted for its fundamentals the ideologies of totalitarianism as practiced in other countries, where neither freedom nor opportunity is known.

Our Constitution, by its own provisions, as stated, can be amended if and when the people desire. There is no possibility, however, of amending the underlying facts:

Freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom of press, freedom from persecution, freedom of opportunity.

No Amendment

There can be no amendment to the limitation of the powers of the government for the protection of individuals and minorities. Such an amendment, if conceivable, would wash out even the power of amendment.

Change of form is possible, but there can be no change of the spirit of the Constitution without a change of spirit of the American people.

There has grown up in this country in certain circles, within recent years, a contempt for the organic law of the United States. We have heard the Constitution ridiculed as a "horse-and-buggy" document; we have even witnessed the spectacle of an executive sworn to uphold the Constitution, blithely advising Congress not to let any scruples about the constitutionality of legislation stand in the way of achieving a political objective.

Unfortunately, along with this attitude of contempt, there has developed a tendency to smear as "reactionaries" those sound Americans who adhere to the principles of the Constitution and insist upon its observance as vital to the perpetuation of true liberty under law.

The best antidote to this cult of alienism is a thorough grounding of every American school child in the precepts of the Constitution which has made us the happiest and most prosperous people the world has ever known. As Lincoln once said, let reverence for law (law based on the Constitution) be taught even at the mother's knee. When we hear an American, big or little, sneering at the foundation of all our freedom, it is time to do a little investigating.

Second Ward Newspaperman Announces Candidacy For Lawrence County Office

CHARLES E. ALLEN

Announcement is made today by Charles E. Allen of 430 Winter avenue, second ward, of his candidacy for the office of Lawrence county coroner, subject to the Republican primaries on September 9.

Mr. Allen has been a resident here since 1900, having been born in Crawford county, and was raised on the East Side. He has been a newspaper man for the past 34 years, 30 of which were spent here in New Castle.

He is a veteran of World War One, having served overseas as a sergeant in Company C, 348th Infantry, 87th Division.

He has been deeply interested in the welfare of his fellow comrades and active in veterans affairs here since his return from service. During the late war, he was assistant chief of Aircraft Warning Service for Lawrence county, and served as chief observer at the East Brook and Grant City aircraft warning stations. He was also a member of the Lawrence County Service Men's Aid Association, formed to assist the families of the men in service, and to arrange farewell ceremonies for them on their departure, missing but three ceremonies in the four and a half years of the war.

At the close of hostilities, he served as re-employment committeeman for Local Board One, of the city of New Castle, and assisted many veterans in securing their old jobs back on their return from service.

He has served as deputy under the past two coroners and is thoroughly familiar with the duties of the office. If successful in being nominated and elected, the voters of Lawrence county may be assured that he will conduct the affairs of this important office promptly and efficiently.

Highlights On The Sunday School Lesson

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for June 22 is II Kings 24-25; Jeremiah 37; 39-40, the Memory Verse being Psalm 28:11, "Jehovah will give strength unto His people; Jehovah will bless His people with peace.")

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

We are nearing the end of Judah's history as a nation. It began gloriously under David and Solomon, and ended shamefully with the people, all but a small remnant, in captivity in Babylon. Jehoiachin, followed his father Jehoiakim, as king of Judah, but not for long. He was 18 years old when he began his reign, but he only reigned for three months. Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, "came up against Jerusalem," and the city was besieged. Instead of fighting, Jehoiachin, with his mother, his servants, his princes and officers, went out to the king of Babylon, and was carried into captivity, never to return to his native land. After years in prison, however, Nebuchadnezzar's successor and son, took him out of prison and made him a pensioner in his house, with a regular allowance for his support.

At this time the treasure of the temple and palace were carried away by the Babylonians, and all the people who were "strong and apt for war," who could lead or fight, were also carried into captivity. Zedekiah was made king (the last) of Judah by Nebuchadnezzar.

Jeremiah Imprisoned

During his reign, Jeremiah, the prophet, who had gone out of Jerusalem to the land of Benjamin, was accused by one, Irijah, of betraying his people to the Chaldeans. He indignantly denied it, but was nevertheless, taken to the princes, who were angry at him, and put him in prison. He remained in a dungeon for many days, and then Zedekiah went to him and asked him, secretly, if there was any word from the Lord. Jeremiah answered yes, that the word was that he, the king, should be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

In what way had he offended, Jeremiah asked the king, that he should be put in prison? Zedekiah commanded, then, that Jeremiah should be committed to the court of the prison, and should every day be given a piece of bread out of the bakers' street until all was gone.

Zedekiah tried a rebellion against the king of Babylon, which was, of course, unsuccessful, and in the ninth year of his reign Nebuchadnezzar "came, he and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they built forts against it round about."

The city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah's reign. Soon there was famine in the city, the people suffered terribly, the historians tell us. "And the city was broken up and all the men of war fled by night... and the king went the way toward the plain."

The Babylonian army overtook Zedekiah, however, and took him prisoner, carrying him to Babylon. They killed his sons before his eyes, and put out his eyes. Nebuchadnezzar sent his captain of the guard, Nebuzaradan, to Jerusalem, where he burnt the house of the Lord, the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem. Every man's house he burnt, and his army broke down the walls of Jerusalem. Many men still left in the city went over to the Babylonians, and the remnant left behind were carried to Babylonio. "But the captain of the guard left of the poor of the land to be vine-dressers and husbandmen."

All Treasures Stolen

All the treasures of the temple were taken away, even to the "pots, and the shovels, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away."

The chief priest, the second priest and the three keepers of the door were taken, and many others, and later slain. "So Judah was carried away out of their land."

Of the few people that remained in the land, Nebuchadnezzar set, Gedaliah, son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, as ruler. Gedaliah swore to the people that they should not fear to be servants of the Chaldeans and serve the king of Babylon. "But it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael of the seed royal, came with ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah that he died."

"And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldees."

Thus fell the people whom the Lord had brought out of their captivity in Egypt, and made into a great nation, because they were not true to the Lord their God and deceiver.

Named President Of Presbyterian Synod In State

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., June 19. (INS)—Rev. Claus J. Slosser, of Chambersburg, today assumed the presidency of the Pennsylvania Synod of the Presbyterian church, now in the fourth day of its sessions at Chambersburg.

Other officers elected included George H. Zacherle, Philadelphia, treasurer, and W. W. Heidelbaugh, Lancaster, secretary.

At the same time, the synod approved a loan of $5000 for operation of a youth camp at Pine Grove Furnace. The 600-acre former German prisoner camp will be leased by the Carlisle Presbytery and the Mercersburg Synod of the Reformed and Evangelical Church for a 10-year period.

Synod delegates adopted a resolution proposing a more effective churchwide program in combating the ever-increasing use of alcoholic beverages.

Other resolutions adopted called for:

Recall of the president's representative at the Vatican; disapproval of peacetime military training; release of trusteeship of "strategic areas" when the United Nations can take them over; treaties with Germany and Japan, and "the spirit of goodwill and justice" in tension between Russia and the United States.

Fountains Abbey is an extensive Cistercian monastery three miles from Ripon, England. It dates from the 13th century. The present ruins are only a part of the abbey. The Norman-English church is in good preservation, and the remains of the refectory, chapter house, and great cloister are still extant.

Cancer Society Holds Meeting

Harold Burns Named To Vice-Presidency; Report Fund Drive Goes Over Top

Lawrence county unit of the American Cancer society met Wednesday afternoon in The Castleton hotel, and went over details pertinent to the operation of the organization for the next few months.

Harold Burns of New Wilmington was named to the vice-presidency's post, and will finish out the unexpired term of the late Emanuel Shenkan. A resolution of respect for Mr. Shenkan was read and incorporated into the minutes of the meeting, expressing the society's deep regret at the loss of such an outstanding civic leader and officer of the unit.

Fund Drive Success
Harold Burns reported on the recent fund drive, stating that the total has exceeded the $13,000 mark, with more cash and checks still arriving at the headquarters.

Workers who gave of their time and effort and all who contributed to the campaign were heartily thanked at the meeting. It was stated that outlying districts of the county, industries and individuals gave generously to put the effort over the top, and the society commended everyone connected with the drive for their spirit and co-operation.

Second unit of radium was reported as having arrived in this country from Brussels, Belgium, and is awaiting clearance through the bureau of weights and measures for distribution to hospitals. The 100 milligrams of the precious element will be used in the treatment of the disease in this country, and was purchased out of the 1946 budget.

Outline School Program
Joseph Hartman outlined the educational program which will be enforced in the public schools of the county beginning with the new term in the fall.

Next meeting of the society will be held the second Tuesday in September, it was announced.

OILY HAIR?

Eminent Practitioner Suggests This Simple Care

An oily scalp requires more frequent shampooing. But dermatologists agree that shampoos containing alcohol, free alkalies and harsh ingredients only irritate the scalp, making the oily condition even worse.

Unlike ordinary shampoos, Dr. Shiffer's Special 101 Formula Shampoo can be used often as needed without harming the most delicate scalp. Specially compounded to give gentle cleansing it works into a rich lather in hard or soft water. A quick rinse leaves the hair and scalp refreshed and thoroughly clean. For additional protection between shampoos Dr. Shiffer's Hair and Scalp Conditioner is recommended.

At all drug and department stores. If you are not completely satisfied, return the unused portion direct to Dr. Shiffer and he will refund your money immediately.

No Civilians Sent Overseas Who Are Disloyal

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(INS)—A special assistant secretary of war said Wednesday that no civilian whose loyalty is even slightly questioned is sent overseas by the war department.

Kenneth D. Johnson, the special assistant, disclosed that civilians sent overseas were subject to the closest inquiry that involved the FBI, the state department, navy intelligence and military intelligence. Final say on questioned loyalty lies with military intelligence. It was learned that the investigation in three recent cases was not completed until the persons investigated were ready to sail. These three, two of suspected Communist sympathies and one alleged Nazi sympathizer, were removed from war department employ just before they boarded their boats. All were destined for the European theater.

Johnson said that a turnaround after a loyalty check actually was no condemnation of a job applicant as a Communist or Fascist. He asserted: "It is not a question of proved disloyalty or loyalty. Probably four out of five that are rejected are completely loyal."

MISS G. BARTBERGEE

WEDS DORN SIMMONS

Before an embankment of palms and ferns on the altar of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, the candlelight wedding ceremony uniting in holy matrimony Miss Geraldine Bartberger, R. D. 3 Pulaski road, and Dorn D. Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Simmons, of Hillsboro, O., was performed on Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. A throng of guests attended the double ring ceremony when vows were heard by Rev. W. G. McCune.

Appropriate nuptial selections were rendered on the piano by Mrs. Carl L. Ryhal who also accompanied Carl L. Ryhal who sang two favorite selections of the bride, "Because" and "I Love You Truly". A period of consecration closed the ceremony and Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Ryhal sang "Sweet Will Of God". COURT HOUSE

It's been a long time since the subject of the new clock in the court house tower has been aired in this column but today it's a fresh subject again. The new master clock has been installed in the end of the first floor corridor looking towards the jail.

This master clock will control the four faced clock which will be placed in the tower of the court house so that when it is 5:15 on one side of the clock it will be 5:15 on the other three. With the old clock you never knew.

The new clock arrangement is entirely electrical.

Cadet Reed One Of Group Feted In Mexico City

Local West Point Man Has Just Returned After Momentous Trip To Mexican Capital

Cadet J. Charles Reed, second classman at West Point Military Academy, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Reed, of 1207 North Mercer street, has just returned after a momentous trip made by twelve West Point cadets to Mexico City, where they were the guests of President Aleman of the Mexican Republic.

The trip was arranged when President Aleman visited West Point on his recent trip to the United States, only Spanish-speaking cadets being taken on the trip. They had their own C-47 plane, and flew to various Mexican points of interest during their trip.

They were received by President Aleman, the secretary of national defense, the American ambassador, and were also guests at numerous festive occasions, including bull fights, horse shows, etc.

The group placed a wreath on the monument of Independence, visited Acapulco, the famous floating gardens, the city of Puebla, and other points of interest.

Cadet Reed will be the guest of his parents here until July 2, when he will return to West Point, after which he will start on a 5500-mile tour of southern air fields, as part of his training.

CHOOSE YOUR COLOR

The best way to find out if a color is becoming is to hold a length of the fabric close to your face, in front of a mirror near a good light. If you find it difficult to judge for yourself which colors do most for your hair, eyes, skin, and complexion, ask a fellow-customer or the salesclerk. In choosing a color for a new dress, remember the other colors in your wardrobe. Be sure the new costume will combine with your hats, coats, bags and other accessories.

Feud Is Cause Of Suicide And Attack On Woman

SCRANTON, Pa., June 19.—(INS)—A smoldering two-year feud was blamed today for the death of Mrs. Anna Glucknis, 37, who shot herself after blasting Mrs. Eva Pennek, 65, with a shotgun.

Police said Mrs. Glucknis pushed the barrel of a shotgun out her kitchen window, and felled Mrs. Pennek while the aged woman was hanging out clothes.

Mrs. Pennek was taken to State hospital with wounds of the head and right shoulder. Police who laid down a barrage of teargas found Mrs. Glucknis in her basement, half her face torn away.

HEADS CHAPTER
PHILADELPHIA, June 19.—(INS)—Mrs. Anna K. Craig, of Pittsburgh, assumed office today as the new worthy grand matron of the Pennsylvania chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. She was elected to succeed Mrs. Anna M. Thomas at the group's convention in Philadelphia.

Local Steeplejack Still Plying Trade

Fifty-seven-year old Carl Becker, of this city, who has been climbing steeples and flag poles for many years, is still on the go, with his latest job being the 165 foot high steeple of St. Mary's church in Beaver Falls.

Climbing steeples since 1908, Mr. Becker declared that the Beaver Falls job was not nearly as high as some towers which he has climbed. He has already scaled 300-foot steeples.

The uncanny think about Mr. Becker is that although he is not afraid to scale the highest tower, he will not go up in an aeroplane.

HUNT SLASHER
PHILADELPHIA, June 19.—(INS)—Police searched today for a youth whose knife ripped two huge gashes in the face of pretty red-haired Mrs. Dorothy McHale, 26.

Mrs. McHale, widow of a merchant seaman, was slashed on the steps of her home while her escort, Joseph Modugno, 30, was at a corner store purchasing ice cream.

Hold Pet Shows At Playgrounds

Pets Of All Descriptions Are Presented; Miniature Golf At Dean Park

Pet shows were held at several of the city's playgrounds Wednesday afternoon. The children paraded their pets, consisting of dogs, cats, rabbits and whatnot. Prizes were awarded.

The affair at Rose avenue was under the jurisdiction of Mary Ann Bell, with Mrs. Margaret Gillett, Mrs. George Sherman and Miss Jane Thompson as judges. The oddest pet presented was a goldfish owned by Audrey Kerr, 1028 Cascade street.

First prize for the prettiest pet went to Darlene Gifford, 817 Bonzo street, who had a cocker spaniel. Second prize was for the cutest pet and went to Robert Boak, 816 Bonzo street, who had a small black kitten and the third prize, for the oddest pet, went to Audrey Kerr, who had the goldfish.

Gordon Setter Wins

The results at Gaston park, where the show was in charge of Charles James and Mary Esther Coates, the prize winners were:

First—Danny, a big black Gordon setter; owner, John Pitzer, East Long avenue.

Second—Jackie, a pet white rabbit; owner, Rose Ann DeLanzo, Jackson avenue.

Third—Brownie, a toy rat terrier; owner, Mike Fracul, Lyndal street.

Dean park show was in charge of Dorothy Naples and results follow: Smartest pet; Tommy Leonhart; nicest looking, Mary Healey, and most unusual pet, Carol Taylor.

The judges here were Edith Pratt, Bunny Rich and Angeline Stella.

Miniature Golf Course
At Dean park an attraction was a softball game with the DP Jr. Red Cross Caps winning 8-1 and the miniature golf course, built by the boys, attracted unusual attention.

Shenango street playground was also the scene of an invasion of pets, both large and small. The judges Alice Gillespie Dorann Jones and Dorothy Crunkleton awarded prizes as follows:

First, Sooner owned by Caronda

Cox; second Minnie, owned by Petie Mangine, and third, Lefty, owned by Paul Moore. A bike parade is planned for next Wednesday.

West Sidt

Goats and goldfish were among the pets at the West Side playground, in charge of Anne Carroll, the judges of the events being Mrs. Kate Ayers, Mrs. Hogue, Ellen Flannery and James Ayers.

First prize went to Sally Hogue, who had a dog named Corky. Fluffy, a cat, brought a second prize to Betty Minter, and a goat won third prize for David Carbone.

Honorable mention was given to pets owned by Sandra Becker, Elaine Vanhorn, M. Guinagh Billy Siebenoller, Sonnal Williams, Mary McCummings, Jack Buckley and Jimmie Horchler.

SEVENTEEN EXECUTED

ATHENS, June 19.—(INS)—Seventeen former members of the Leftist Elias Resistance army were executed yesterday.

They had been sentenced to death for atrocities in the 1944 Civil War.

Knutson Favors Excise Taxes Cut

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(INS)—Rep. Knutson (R) Minn., house ways and means committee chairman, today endorsed the suggestion of the GOP house leadership to cut "luxury" excise taxes to compensate for President Truman's veto of the income tax reduction bill.

Knutson reported he would confer with house leaders on the possibility of terminating the war time excise levies before the house adjourns next month.

He declared himself in favor of reducing most of the excise taxes to their pre-war levels in retaliation for the president's action in killing the income tax bill by veto.

Knutson was the author of the controversial bill which would have meant four billion dollars to the nation's taxpayers.

Diamonds are found in shades of green, pink, deep blue, brown and even black.

Red Cross Plans Nutrition Meeting At State College

STATE COLLEGE, June 19.—Between one and two hundred Red Cross workers from seven states will participate in a Nutrition Workshop to be held at the Pennsylvania State College from July 7 to July 18.

The workshop, offered by the American Red Cross Eastern Area Nutrition Service and the Department of Home Economics at the Pennsylvania State College, will be the first to be held at Penn State.

Chapter nutrition directors, nutrition committee chairmen, nutrition instructors, and others interested in community nutrition programs will be enrolled.

Claims Eisenhower To Resign Post To Head Columbia

NEW YORK, June 19.—(INS)—The New York Daily Mirror in a copyrighted story by Walter Winchell said today that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has tendered his resignation to President Truman and will become president of Columbia university next fall.

The story added that Eisenhower's resignation already is in the hands of the president and that there was little doubt that Mr. Truman would accept it.

'Flatrock' On Hickory Creek Makes Appeal

Swimming Season Makes Progress
Despite Chill Winds And Sunshine Lack

Swimming season is officially under way. Despite the chill winds and lack of warm sunshine, youngsters, and grownups, too, with gooselike showing through their not-very-tans have been frequenting the city pools. The timeless favorite, the pool formed by nature, is also being hunted out again. Though the water isn't heated, and there are no chairs or candy machines around, the "old swimmin' hole" is as popular as ever.

A favorite of New Castle youngsters is "Flatrock", located about six miles from New Castle in a secluded piece of timber. It is in Hickory creek, about one hundred yards below the famous old covered bridge.

Last Thursday marked its opening. A brave sun vainly tried to counteract chill breezes, but undaunted youngsters shivered and jumped in anyhow. There was the usual maze of poison ivy to avoid or wade through, and the water was muddy, but twenty-five laughing, shouting enthusiasts scampered over the rocks and cut the water in thorough enjoyment.

Proving the popularity of this natural haunt was the statement of one small lad. Standing in the muddy water up to his neck, he shivered happily and said, "Let's come out here every day!"

Dog And Youngster Find Oiling Road Develops Problems

Muggs, a black and white terrier, and his five-year-old master, Dale Tindale, of Mahoningtown, R. D. 7, are very definitely not in favor of road improvement legislation. The road from Moravia to New Galilee is being oiled and repaired, but the unknown Muggs paddled across and dismally howled. Oil, stones, sticks, and grass were becoming attached to his feet and legs.

Dale, hearing the distress signal, rushed to the rescue—a la bare feet. Too late he discovered the cause of Muggs' distress. His feet too, were acquiring foreign objects. Since home was on the other side of the oily mess, there was only one thing to do—go back. Getting a firm grip on Muggs' collar, Dale picked him up and started. By the time they got onto soft green grass again, Dale's mind had functioned to the point of hosing himself and Muggs down. Cold water didn't seem to help much, so Dale, with Muggs, resigned to a siege in the bathtub.

feel so frightened at strange persons as not to be able to say a word. If you ever feel so scared yourself before a stranger it will help you to feel better if you can make yourself look right into that person's eyes.

If you can use your eyes well when you speak or listen you might help another boy or girl who can't use the eyes so well. I believe you will find out for yourself how to give this help. When you do, you will make your friend feel happier and make yourself feel happier, too.

Enough Soft Coal Deposits To Last Nation 1500 Years

CHICAGO, June 19.—(INS)—Dr. Harold J. Rose of the Bituminous Coal Research Inc., said Wednesday that America has a coal reserve sufficient to last for the next 1,500 years.

In an address at a luncheon meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers in Chicago, Dr. Rose said that the nation's coal reserve is an outstanding bright spot in America's mineral wealth picture.

He emphasized that his 1500 year figure included enough coal for heat, light, power, transportation and the smelting of metals, all liquid and gaseous fuels, and most synthetic chemicals, at the present rate of consumption with allowance for conversion efficiencies.

A graphic indication of the speed-up in the use of our mineral wealth was given by Dr. Rose in his statement that "the world has spent more of its mineral wealth in the last 40 years than in all preceding history."

Misses Marjorie Sisley and Valente Kolunie, were the judges, who awarded Jim Palmer, 196 Harbor street, first prize, for his pet goat. Second prize went to Walter Steiner, 307 Bell avenue, having a blonde puppy. Dale Douth of 312 Bell avenue, captured third prize, for his brown and white dog.

The judges gave honorable mention to Martha Gavroy, for her yellow canary; second to Sylvia Borah, Bell avenue, for black and white spotted coach dog. Bobby Walker, Bell avenue, presented the winning ribbons.

Next special event will be a wheel show, Wednesday, June 25, at 2 p. m.

Hold Father On Charge Of Beating Children To Death

MIAMI, Fla., June 19.—(INS)—A 56-year-old tavern keeper was charged with murder today after police announced he confessed beating his two young children to death with a baseball bat when they told him they preferred death to living in a children's home.

A murder warrant was issued charging the tavern keeper, Chris Russell, with the slaying of his two children, John, 6, and Peggy, 11, who faced transfer to a county home for juveniles.

In addition, authorities said Russell was being held on charges of assault with intent to kill in the shooting of his landlady and her husband, which they declared closely followed yesterday's bludgeon deaths.

The landlady and her husband were in serious condition.

Police said Russell tried to take his own life after the shooting but his gun misfired.

Of the 55 highest mountain peaks in the United States, 42 are in Colorado.

City Employees Ask Wage Raise

When council met Thursday in city hall two petitions, requesting wage increases were received and filed. Fire-Fighters Union, Local No. 160, requested an increase, point out the cost of living had increased and cities in New Castle's class paid higher wages. United Public Workers, CIO, Local 590 (street department employees) requested an hourly increase of 15 cents because of the higher cost of living and also asked 30 days sick leave, the same as firemen and police now receive.

Admiral Says Forces Merger Excluded Navy

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(INS)—Rear Adm. Ellis M. Zacharias charged today before a congressional committee that the merger bill was drawn up by the Army and the Army Air Corps "without previous consultation with the Navy." The retired naval officer told the House Executive Expenditures committee that "the Navy was caught completely by surprise when a completed study which seems to have been under consideration by the Army Air Corps and the Army for a period of three years, was presented." The former head of America's psychological warfare against the Japs asserted that the proposals to establish a single department of national defense and an independent air force "have been 'hammered out' and supported by vilification, innuendo, and threats."

It is said that publishers have never been able to bring out a book entirely free from grammatical and typographical errors. The book nearest perfection is the Bible which, because of its many reprintings, has afforded many opportunities for corrections.

Refuse Motion To Delay Trial Of May-Garsson

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(INS)—Judge Henry A. Schweinhaut today rejected a defense motion to delay the trial of the May-Garsson conspiracy until the recovery of Joseph P. Freeman, key witness stricken with a heart attack on Tuesday.

However, the judge permitted chief defense counsel Charles J. Margiotti to rest his case with the proviso that the jury would hear Freeman's testimony before the trial closes.

Judge Schweinhaut directed prosecutor William A. Paisley to start his rebuttal testimony at once.

Freeman, former Washington contact man for the Garsson munitions empire, suffered a heart attack in the midst of his testimony on Tuesday. He has been hospitalized since.

Freeman had been called by the defense to help ex-Rep. May (D) Ky., and munitions maker Henry and Murray Garsson fight charges that May was paid $53,000 for favors he did the Garssons while he headed the House military committee.

DELAY DECISION ON KANSAS CITY ELECTION PROBE

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(INS)—The Senate Judiciary Committee today delayed until June 30 a decision on whether to make a full dress investigation of the Kansas City election in which President Truman took a hand in "purging" Rep. Roger Slaughter (D) Mo.

At the same time, FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover, wrote a letter to Sen. Ferguson (R) Mich., saying his testimony before the subcommittee about the allegedly "restricted" preliminary investigation has been "misinterpreted."

Hoover declared he did not intend to indicate that he suspected "that an ulterior motive had actuated the Attorney General or the Department of Justice" in the order for a limited inquiry.

The FBI chief asserted in his letter to Ferguson that Clark never has tried to restrict any investigation.

Seeking Woman As Key Witness In Treason Trial

BOSTON, June 19.—(INS)—FBI agents pressed a search today for a missing St. Louis woman, a key witness in the treason trial of expatri-ate newsmen Douglas Chandler, accused of broadcasting propaganda over the war-time Berlin radio.

Disappearance of the witness Mrs. Kathryn Bussman Duval of St. Louis, was disclosed as the prosecution neared completion of its case in federal district court before Judge Francis J. W. Ford and a jury.

Mrs. Duval testified before the grand jury which indicted the former Baltimore, Md., newsmen. She was ordered to return to Boston as a trial witness. Two weeks' search by FBI agents failed to produce any trace of her.

The "Bat," a combat missile that guides itself by radar and can follow a moving target, was developed in 1946 for all-weather bombing.

Kiwanians See Film On Railroads

Interesting Picture Depicting Growth Of Railroad In This Country Is Seen

Through the interest of Kiwanian Clarence M. England, New Castle Kiwanis club members saw an interesting film at their noon luncheon meeting in The Castleton, on Wednesday, entitled "Clear track ahead."

The picture showed the development of the railroad from the puny locomotives and small tracks to the present day streamliners, traversing the length and breadth of our country, which have served as one of the big factors in the development of this nation.

French Strike Tempo Increases

PARIS, June 19.—(INS)—The French strike situation in reared in tempo today with walkouts in nationalized banks throughout the country and Algeria.

Three large department stores in Paris and virtually all dime stores closed their doors in disputes with employees.

The bank walkouts were expected to be short-lived since negotiations for bonuses and paid vacations were reported progressing satisfactorily. But early reopening of the strike-bound stores was not anticipated. Owners have flatly refused to consider demands for monthly pay boosts averaging 1,000 francs.

Meanwhile, movie-goers faced the prospect of unchanged movie programs. Theaters warned they may be unable to change programs as a result of spreading strikes which began in the MGM studios.

LIARS MAY OUTDO THEMSELVES IN '47 'WHOPPER' CONTEST

BURLINGTON, Wis., June 19.—(INS)—Liars of 1947 gave promise today of outdoing themselves in this year's national contest.

O. C. Hulet, president of the Burlington Liars' club, said he was receiving a befe of mail from liars all over the country.

Hulet reported that one tall tale from Joe Ambrose, Weeping Water, Neb., farmer, went something like this:

Flood waters once rose right up to the nostrils of a mule on Joe's farm. The mule got a mouth of water and squirted it for half a mile.

The mule kept doing this for some time. It lowered the water on Joe's farms all right, but some neighbors began to complain. The mule had flooded half of the next county.

Hardwoods are so plentiful in Nigeria, Africa, that mahogany planks are used in boardwalks and to cover mudholes.

Bees Make Escape; Who's Stung For Bill

PHILADELPHIA, June 19.—(INS)—A number of fugitive bees from Louisiana are flying around eastern Pennsylvania today while Reading Co. officials try to figure who gets stung for the bill.

The bees, nicely crated, were en route from Jeanerette, Pa., to the national farm school and junior college at Chalfont.

An express company employee loaded the honeybees into the baggage compartment of a two-car electric train at Reading terminal in Philadelphia.

Somewhere the crate broke and Engineer Frank Coulton of the Philadelphia-to-Doylestown train learned about the bees' release—the usual way you find out about bees. Coulton fled.

The station master finally had another car backed in and hitched onto the front, leaving the baggage car to the bees. Since the doors were open, most of the bees promptly left the baggage car.

Who pays whom is still an open question.

Much Merchandise Awaits Delivery Because Of Strike

PITTSBURGH, June 19.—(INS)—Freight-loading platforms in Pittsburgh today were piled high with badly-needed merchandise as striking teamsters and the Western Pennsylvania Motor Carriers Association stood pat on demands and offers of pay boosts.

The AFL teamsters recently pared their hourly pay raise demands from 35 to 20, across the board. The Association was standing firm on its offer of a 15-cent hourly boost.

Meanwhile, cigarettes, newspaper, electric fixtures, groceries, washing machine and countless other items awaited transfer to warehouses.

No future meeting has been called by the two factions in an effort to end the 19-day-old walkout. Thirty-five operators have signed individual contracts with the union, but there still were 1,800 trucks idle.

The University of Santo Domingo was founded in 1538. It was established by the friars of the Dominican Order after a bull of Pope Paul III had been endorsed by the king of Spain.

Dinner will be served to approximately 75 guests at 6 o'clock p. m., following which a fine program has been arranged to be presented and dancing will be enjoyed later in the evening. This M & D affair, the second of its kind promises to be more successful than that in the previous year because of the complete return of the district's boys.

Wives and sweethearts of the members will be honored as special guests.

The M & D Club was organized one year ago and its officers include Al Valletta, president; Sam Aiello, treasurer, and Carmen Smarrelli, secretary.

The average price paid by Americans for electricity is 3.24 cents a kilowatt hour.

Plan To Open Flaherty Field To Public Tonight

Dedication, Tourney Holds Interest Of Local Baseball Fans

Hope For Good Weather Tonight And Long Delayed Opening Of Baseball Park; First Game At 6:30 P. M.—Dedication At 8:30, According To Plans.

New Castle baseball fans three times disappointed by the weatherman will gather at the beautiful F. J. Flaherty Field tonight, for the planned dedication, and National Baseball Congress district tournament opening. The first game starts at 6:30 o'clock.

In the event the weatherman lets the opening take place, tonight the Croton district will resemble a metropolitan area as autos and buses carry fans to the field located on North Cascade street leading to the Paper Mill Dam road.

Ralph H. Gardner, business manager for the Johnson Bronze Employees Association baseball field, and Joseph J. Daugherty, president of the association feel that the fans will find a baseball game completely dried out and will present a neat picture tonight.

First Night Game
What the fans are interested in, is the prospect of seeing their first night game here. The field has been talked about in the factory, shop and stores, and over every dinner table, for weeks now. The fans are anxious to see the myriad of lights turned on.

Two Good Games
The price is 75 cents for general admission, and $1.00 for reserved seats. Gardner and Daugherty announced that tickets bought for previous planned openings will be honored tonight.

The second game on the bill following the dedication service will find Manager Michael Duffey and his Johnson Bronze Jay-Bees in their initial public showing against the Mars team of the Butler County league. "We are anxious to win the opening game, and will likely pitch Freddy Shaffer, veteran American league hurler," Duffey stated.

Ample Parking Room
The fans will find ample parking room for their cars in the big field across the road from the ball park. They will also find rest rooms have been installed, also comfortable bleacher seats. They will also find courteous efficient service from all employees of the park, from ticket sellers and takers on down the line.

New Castle fans will respond in large numbers tonight to the first night game. There will be seats for about 3,000 or more.

BAPTISTS WIN GAME
The First Baptists defeated the Epworth team 12 to 6 last night in a church softball league game, at Colonial field.

Matchmaker Nat Rogers of Madison Square Garden today tabbed Jackie Burke, young Pittsburgh middleweight, as a future prospect for the Garden.

Ewell Blackwell Hurls No-Hitter For Cincinnati

Rookie Hurler Registers Tenth Win Of Year, Enters Hall Of Fame

GIANTS LAMBAST PIRATES 12 TO 5

By LOU GARAVANTE International News Service Sports Writer

Ray Lamanno Ewell Blackwell Reds

NEW YORK, June 19.—A gaunt, loosely powerful giant, with an intrepid courage and an arm of steel, mingled deservedly today in the immortal company of the Youngs, the Mathewsons, the Marquards and the Fellers.

Ewell Blackwell, the towering six foot, five inch ace pitcher of the Cincinnati Reds last night gained entrance to baseball's hall of fame by pitching a no-run no-hit game against the slugging Boston Braves.

A searing cross-fire technique and a low, sweeping curve were the instruments with which the elongated, sad-faced Blackwell carried his name among the diamond greats to notch a brilliant 6 to 0 victory.

A lot of credit for Blackwell's superb performance last night can go to the backstopping of Ray Lamanno, who handled the "freshie" pitcher like a veteran.

Tenth Victory
The Redleg ace, winner of ten games this year, and victor in his last eight starts, wasn't touched for anything that even looked like a hit.

There was drama in the American league too. The Red Sox pushed over a run in the 15th inning of a night game in Boston to beat the St. Louis Browns, 6-5.

Giants Belt Pirates
The slugging New York Giants belted four Pittsburgh pitchers for 12 hits and 12 runs to smash out a 12 to 5 triumph. Hank Greenberg hit two home runs and Ralph Kiner another to account for all the Pirate runs.

In Chicago, the Brooklyn Dodgers, although outthrust, made it two straight over the Cubs by winning 5 to 3 on rookie catcher Gil Hodges' first major league home run in the seventh inning.

The St. Louis Cardinals made it seven consecutive victories by defeating the Philadelphia Phillies 5 to 2 behind the fine pitching of left hander Alpha Euzell.

Indians Win
The Cleveland Indians made it two straight over the Washington Senators by rallying in the seventh and eighth inning for a 9 to 3 victory.

Scheduled games between the New York Yankees and the Chicago White Sox, and the Detroit Tigers and the Philadelphia Athletics, were postponed because of rain.

Umps Assigned To County Tilts
Following umpires have been assigned to County League games for Friday, June 20:

Ellwood Moose at Bessemer, Richards and Morgan. Edenburg at Hillsville, Ferrucci and Denaio.

St. Lucy's at New Galilee, Hardisky and VanEmman. Wayne A.C. at Ellwood Vets, Smolnik and Griffith.

Castledown at Wampum, T. Conti and Canale.

Heavy Hitting Feature Of County League Games

HILLERS CRUSH SAINTS, 16 TO 1

HILLVILLE, June 19.—Slamming out 16 hits and as many runs Hillville trounced their town rivals, St. Lucy's, here last night to remain in the first division battle.

Sparked by the loud bats of Dom Micco and Retone, the Zarlingo club scored in every frame but the second, with eight big runs crossing the platter in the fifth. Featuring the heavy assault were round trippers by Retone, Caldarraro and F. Penwell.

Behind this barrage of base hits B. Penwell fashioned a fine two-hitter, fanning eight. Squelgia was on the rubber at the start of the game for the Saints, being shelved to the sidelines, with Pozzuli finishing.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

EVER hear of a catcher occupying a chair behind the bat for three innings? Such occurred when a team which represented, either the local street railway or the Penn Power against their representatives in Youngstown, years ago. Jubalo Jones pitched and Mitz Dart caught for New Castle. Being ahead at the end of the sixth frame, Mitz walked off the field, picked up a chair, carried it to the catcher's box and sat down while he caught Jubalo during the next three innings. New Castle won easily. "You certainly had a lot of stuff on on the ball in those days," remarked Mitz to Jubalo when they met recently. "Yes, and your handled it," was Jubalo's reply. At present, Jubalo is working at Kane. In his pitching days, he was one of the best twirlers hereabouts. . . . George Rigby, while fishing at Kennedy's Mills, saw a Pittsburgh fisherman, catch a trout, which Rigby opined weighed five pounds. He reports trout are hitting well on flies.

George Chip had faith in his manager. Years ago Billy Papke, now dead, came to New Castle to train. "Got anyone with whom I can train?" he asked of Jimmie Dime, also among the departed. "Yes, that young fellow over there. He's going to be the next middleweight champ," said Dime, an assertion which caused Papke to guffaw. Chip worked out with Papke. After the training bout, Papke said to Dime, "What are you hiding this fellow for? He can bowl over half the boxers in the ring." Dime smiled then said: "I'm saving him. You're going to Paris to fight in the tourney and Frank Klaus will lick you all. After he does, I'm going to match him with Klaus. No one will give him a chance, but he will stop Klaus." This is exactly what happened in 1913 when Chip became middleweight king.

Doser Sparkles PGA Qualifier

By CHARLES EINHORN
(International News Service Sports Writer)

DETROIT, June 19.—Professional golfer's chesty bigwigs found themselves chasing a little man from the land of might-have-been today as they launched the final 18 holes in their vital qualifying battle for the P.G.A. championship.

The innocent-sounding name of Clarence Dosser, all five-foot-five of him, led all the field—the Hogs, the Lockes, the Demarets and their choice friends—after 18 holes of first-day of play involving 141 golfers and a record crowd of 6,300 fans at Detroit's Plum Hollow Golf Club.

Five Under Par
For Dosser, there was a savage 67 on the scoreboard—five strokes under par, and one swing ahead of two gaudy '68's manufactured during yesterday's travail by a pair of singing linksmen, Claude Harmon and Jimmy Demaret.

In recording his wicked 67 yesterday, Dosser racked up six birdies—and yet his longest putt was only 14 feet. That shows what kind of approach work this pocket-sized, dark-haired New Yorker was authoring. Both Harmon and Demarett needed slick work on the greens to deliver their fine 68's.

Worsham Falters
Conspicuous by his absence from the fore-runners was one, Lewis Elmer Worsham, the Virginian who only last Sunday smashed to play-off triumph in the National Open at St. Louis.

Worsham carded a meek 74 yesterday, and he'll have to throw the works at that golf course today in order to make the finals.

Navy Crew Favored In Regatta Revival At Poughkeepsie

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 19.—(INS)—The strapping big Navy crew today was established as the favorite to take the three-mile Poughkeepsie regatta late Saturday afternoon from 10 of the nation's best intercollegiate shells.

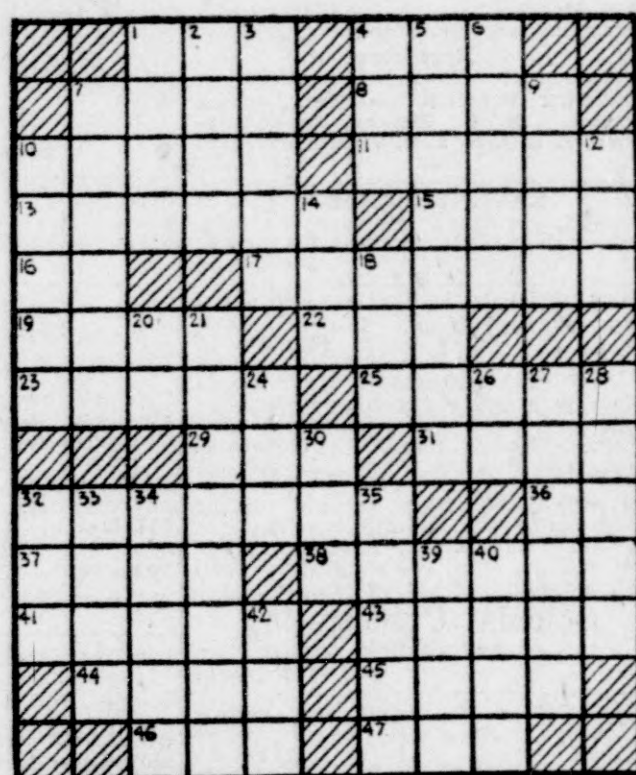

A poll of observers on the scene had Navy on top, closely followed by Cornell and Princeton.

There was some sentiment for California and Washington due to the great Poughkeepsie records of these two colleges, which, however, are not supposed to be as strong as usual this year.

Syracuse, Wisconsin, M.I.T., Pennsylvania, Rutgers and Columbia were generally regarded as outsiders.

Harvard Crew Defeats Yale

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 19.—(INS)—Tom Bolles, Harvard's crew coach, still held a spotless record today following the Crimson's two-length win over a battling, but out-classed, Yale shell in the 82nd annual Varsity race of America's oldest intercollegiate regatta.

Since 1936, when Bolles became the Crimson's coach, Harvard's crew has not been defeated by any varsity shell manned by Yale's huskies. This year, Yale came close, being timed six seconds behind the swiftly sweeping Cantabs on the famed Thames four-mile course.

Harvard also won the Jayvee struggle. Yale's consolation factor was in winning the freshman race for the second time in 11 years.

The cause of tooth decay is a matter of scientific dispute, but many investigators are convinced that bad food habits are one of the important causes.

MARKET RANGE

IS IRREGULAR
NEW YORK, June 19.—(INS)—American Telephone slumped further today to its lowest level since 1943 as the rest of the stock market jockeyed in narrow and irregular range.

Market followers pointed out a combination of factors in the steady slump of A. T. & T. from its 1947 high of 174 to its present price of 149 1/2. They are: fears the annual $9 dividend might not be maintained; foreign liquidation of the stock and arbitrage operations on the redemption call for the 3 per cent bonds of 1956.

Auto shares continued to find support. Chrysler neared its 1947 peak of 108 1/2 on a rise of nearly two points, but it tapered near noon. General Motors rose a fraction while Packard edged up from its low of 5 on active demand.

Steels, like most sections of the market, were mixed. U. S. Steel advanced moderately while Bethlehem ran into tight selling. Norfolk & Western sagged four points while other rails were narrow and mixed. Oils and rubbers worked irregularly higher. Utilities, coppers, meat packing issues and aviation were without trend.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS ACIDS

Help 15 Miles of Kidney Tubes Flush Out Poisonous Waste

If you have excess of acids in your blood, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may be over-worked. These tiny filters and tubes are working day and night to help Nature rid your system of excess acids and poisonous waste.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Kidneys may need help the same as howels, so ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 60 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

'Freedom Train' Tour To Be Minus Political Issue

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(INS)—Attorney General Tom Clark told congress Wednesday that the proposed nationwide "Freedom Train" tour of historic American documents is without political implications.

Clark testified before the house expenditures committee at the request of Rep. Hoffman (R) Mich., who wanted complete details of the trip and a report on where Clark obtained authority to carry it out.

The attorney general asserted that the project to carry the documents, which include the declaration of independence and the constitution, is being underwritten by the American Heritage Foundation at no expense to the government.

He maintained that precedent for such an exhibition had been set in the loaning of documents to world fairs and bond drives during the war.

Clark asserted that the exhibit of early American documents of freedom was sponsored to combat "the increase in lawlessness, the development of a tacit acceptance of American institutions and the threatening danger of subversive activity."
